

WHO SHOULD SUBMIT THIS FORM?

The NCPS-EZ should be submitted by the noncustodial parent for all first-time financial assistance applicants whose parents are separated or divorced. This includes freshman and transfer applicants to our 2010-2011 entering class and current students wishing to apply for financial assistance at Washington University for the first time. The student and parent(s) should work together to complete the NCPS-EZ.

IF I SUBMIT THE CSS NONCUSTODIAL PARENT'S STATEMENT (NCPS), SHOULD I ALSO SUBMIT THE NCPS-EZ?

The NCPS-EZ can be completed in place of the CSS NCPS. If you have already submitted the CSS NCPS, we may ask you to send the NCPS-EZ to speed up your financial assistance application, but it is generally not necessary to complete both.

WHERE WILL I FIND THE INFORMATION I NEED TO COMPLETE THE NCPS-EZ?

Financial information used in the NCPS-EZ should come from the noncustodial parent's 2009 IRS tax returns. If the noncustodial parent has not completed the 2009 tax returns, use the line items from the 2008 returns as a guide. If you do this, give us the best estimate of what your 2009 numbers will be.

HOW WILL WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY DETERMINE MY ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE?

For students whose parents are divorced or separated, the financial assistance award is based on either the FFP-EZ or CSS PROFILE, in addition to the NCPS-EZ or CSS NCPS.

IS MY INFORMATION SHARED WITH OTHERS?

---

Financial information submitted to Student Financial Services is kept confidential. Your information will not be shared.

WHERE SHOULD THE COMPLETED NCPS-EZ BE SENT?

You may submit the NCPS-EZ online at <http://ncps.wustl.edu>, or send this form to our office:
